Topic 2. The Family of Jesus Does God's Will

- Scrutinize yourself honestly: Are you complacent in your spiritual life, and self-satisfied in your religious practice? What areas is the Spirit prompting you to change for the strengthening of your family and fellowship family's pilgrimage?

---

---

---

- How would you explain to someone who asked if doing the will of our Father was a command only for His Son Jesus, or for ALL our Father's children?

---

---

---

---

---

- Describe what you believe to be God's "Kingdom" responsibilities to you. Then describe what you believe are your "Kingdom" responsibilities to Him.

---

---

---

---

---

- Are you willing to pay whatever it costs you for the pearl of great price? What would be the hardest "payment" for you at this time? Is your heart truly set on completing your pilgrimage to your salvation by doing the will of God?

---

---

---

- List the five most important people in your life. Describe why you value and esteem each one.

-
- How does your professed love for your Lord Jesus compare with your love for each of the 5 people you listed? Be honest!

-
- Describe what you believe the will of God means for you. Discuss your response with those close to you.

-
- Our Lord has called His own to be His bondservants, doing the will of God from our heart (see Ephesians 6:6). Describe how His will is being accomplished through you; through your family; through your fellowship family collectively.

-
- Would our Father commend you for how you are doing? Yes or No? If no, what do you think the consequences are for your disobedience and self-will? What do you need to change individually, as a family, and as a fellowship family before it's too late?
