Section 4: Segment 6

Topic 2. Kingdom Living: Fulfilling The “Great Commission”

- When you first responded to the Holy Spirit’s call and yielded your life to the Lordship of Jesus, who were the first people you told? How did they respond?

- When you think of reaching out to unbelievers, what goes through your mind?

- Identify some specific people in your own “Jerusalem” for whom you’re willing to fast and pray that they’ll be responsive to your testimony as His disciple.

- Who are those in your “Judea” with whom you’re comfortable even if not “good buddies” yet? Who are among your “Samaria” contacts — those who because of cultural, economic or religious backgrounds you might feel a little hesitant to converse with in a growing relationship?

- Describe an “ends of the earth” experience in which our Father unexpectedly orchestrated an encounter when you were way out of your comfort zone or even in another country or gathering of those from other lands.

- How have any “techniques” from your past interfered with sharing your life with an acquaintance or friend who is interested in the Jesus they see in you? Do you really know how to RELATE to others as Jesus’ representative?

-
- Do you know how to love them as He would? DO you? Are you filled with the LOVE of Jesus for others that translates into action?

-
- Are YOU willing to put yourself out on behalf of someone in need and not feel imposed on? Yes or No? If no, why aren’t you?

-
- Describe an instance in which you responded to the prompting of the Spirit to meet a tangible need.
