Section 4: Segment 6

Topic 3. The Lasting Fruit Of The People Movement Approach

- Have you met Christians who are reluctant to expand their relational sphere, particularly with unbelievers? Why is it important to make sure each of you in your home fellowship is reaching out to bless those who have yet to encounter Jesus?

- What has been your own experience in relational connectedness? Do you invite people into your home? Do you invite people anywhere?

- Why is using your home the most affirming way to demonstrate true hospitality to others? Are you in any way deterred by the condition of your home to invite others in? What do you purpose to do about your attitude?

- When did you last ask someone into your home just because you were extending the heart of Jesus toward them and not conducting a meeting? What did you do while you were together? Did your guest(s) feel that you really cared about them?

- Do your acquaintances within the religious system invite you to their homes, or do you find that most just invite you to their “church services”?

- Can you name your neighbors six houses up and down the street from your home?

- How are you trying to reach the people in your neighborhood as a light that brings glory to our Father? Do you consistently pray for them by name?
