Section 4: Segment 8

Topic 1. Newer Testament Qualifications

- The outcome of a man's life was the critical test for whether others should listen to his teaching. Are there any people, in particular among your children or parents, whom you need to seek forgiveness for NOT having been the parent or child you should have been?

- Do you agree that from a Hebraic perspective, a man begins to attain wisdom around age 40, and is perhaps wise enough to counsel at 50? Has that been true in the older men in your fellowship family?

- In the listings of elder qualifications in 1 Timothy 3 and Titus 1, which qualities do you think are the most difficult to be developed? How can you help the younger men you know begin their transformation process into these?
