Topic 1. Elder/Shepherds: Guiding the Flock to Our Father Through the Narrow Gate

- How do you respond when someone corrects or rebukes you when you're on a path that's dangerous for your soul? Ask others for feedback to your response.

---

---

---

---

- When was the last time you corrected or rebuked someone in your fellowship family? What change, if any, did you notice in the relationship between you?

---

---

---

---

- Is there anyone in your fellowship family you're apprehensive to share a correction or rebuke? Has that apprehension kept you from this aspect of one-anothering love?

---

---

---

---

- Why is it important that you understand the life preparation that brought you where you are today? Are you in the habit of reflecting so that you have ready testimonies to share?

---

---

---

---

- If you're an older man, how would you evaluate yourself in being equipped to serve an extended spiritual family? How do those in your care evaluate you?

-
- Describe an instance or two of painful life experience that our Father used to build your character. Is anyone in your faith family in a position to benefit from the lessons you learned?

-
- How often do you make some sort of contact with each person in your fellowship family? Does each one think that amount is enough?

-
- In what ways can you stir up the “love and good deeds” of blessing that one-anothering accomplishes?
