Topic 2. Gatekeeping: Loving Courage Confronts Sin and Strongholds

- When would it be appropriate for those who have yet to encounter Jesus as their Lord to get together with some of your fellowship family? How would contact with those who love Jesus benefit those who aren't yet His?

- Describe an instance when you assumed someone was a Christian but then found that wasn't true. Did that discovery change the nature of your conversation or relationship? In what way?

- What is the difference between being concerned for another person's feelings, and fearful of hurting their feelings? Which category generally depicts you?

- Do you ever find yourself shrinking away from what our Lord has called you to say or do? How do you feel afterward?

- Have you ever been a source of pain for someone because the Spirit directed you to say something they didn't want to hear? Was your relationship permanently ruptured, or did reconciliation come about? Did others who knew about the situation respond any differently toward you afterward?
