Section 4: Segment 11

Topic 1. The Role of Older Women

- If you are an older woman, describe your lifestyle and what you do to help the younger women in your fellowship family.

- What have you learned from your earlier life experiences that could be helpful in guiding younger women to love their husbands and children?

- What have you had to “unlearn” or set aside from the worldly approach to marriage and motherhood that’s conflicted with the good and fruitful ways the Bible relates?

- Who has been your toughest critic as you’ve sought to be the kind of wife and/or mother that your Lord has called you to be?

- If “control” is considered doing whatever you think is necessary to reach an outcome that you feel is best, would you say you are “controlling” or “loving”? How would you differentiate between love and control?
