Section 4: Segment 11

Topic 4. When You Gather, Don't Spill Your Guts!

- Have you been in worship gatherings or small groups in which embarrassing personal details were shared too readily, even among strangers? How did you feel?

- How would you handle a situation in which someone blurted out inappropriate personal matters during your fellowship gathering? Has this occurred? What did you do?

- In your fellowship family, what sort of testimonies have you shared that reflected the true comfort of God rather than commiseration?

- As you reflect on your fellowship family, which do you find that you're experiencing more: true fellowship or true ministry? Neither?

- How can you help your fellowship family walk more fully in the relational responsibility our Lord calls for in His Body in a way that no one abuses your sense of family intimacy?
