Topic 2. Load-bearing: Communally Raising Godly Generations

- Discuss an older person who passed along wisdom to you in some area as you were growing up.

- If you are older, have you reflected on what you've learned along the way about the blessings of obedient trust? If you are younger, do you have any reluctance to learn from those who've gone ahead of you in life?

- Who is currently teaching your children? What background or preparation has this person had? What is the spiritual condition of this person?

- Why would the humanist undergirding of public education have such a great effect on your children's values and goals?

- What would keep you from walking in your God-given responsibility with your fellowship family to communally train up this next generation?
