Topic 3. Load-bearing: Be God’s Blessing To Your Fellowship Family

- Do most of your concerns focus on what YOU are interested in, or on the concerns of Father and service for His glory? Are you satisfied with your response or would like to change?

- How has God gifted you to respond when it is within your power to act? How have you followed the Spirit’s prompting to help others in your fellowship? Describe a few situations of His work through you.

- If you share the precious friendship of extended spiritual family, are you aware of any material needs your brothers and sisters might have? If there are needs, what material blessing do those in need receive from YOU?

- Ask yourself, “Am I a gracious giver to those whom I PROFESS are my fellowship family? Does my giving reflect my appreciation for all that my Father has given me?”

- When you DO meet a need, is the receiver embarrassed because you broadcast what you did?

- Would those who know you well say you have a “good eye” or an “evil eye”? How do you reveal whether you’re generous or stingy?

- Describe a time when you were so anxious about your finances that you held onto what you had rather than meeting the true need of a brother. How did you feel afterward?

- Describe an instance in which you had a very great financial need. How did our Lord meet it?

- Name the people in your faith community to whom you would turn in time of deep trouble in your life.

- Name the people in your faith community you would ask to do an activity.

- Have you been in the practice of extending biblical hospitality to those in your fellowship family?

- How could you encourage more intergenerational contact among those in your fellowship family?
