The Hebraic family is not simply an individual or private matter. Rather, it is an institution in which the whole community has a stake. Thus, the Hebrew word "mishpachah," meaning family, not only refers to parents and children, but to the whole extended family worldwide in the body of "Yeshua"— our Jesus.

Love the Lord Your God with all...

Dear Friends,

wife Leigh and daughter Katie. blessing us. While with them we met an Amish family, the Flauds, from whom they had rented a house and become friends.

The time spent with the Flaud family was a breath of fresh spiritual air to us. What was supposed to be a short visit lasted hours. The father, Abram, honored me by taking me out to his workshop to talk on a personal level as fathers. As we talked. I shared the Hebraic foundations with him. Both of us were thrilled to see how much they were already part of his family's devotion to Jesus. He asked for copies of all of our books.

We had noticed that his wife, Priscilla, was fairly dark-skinned. Before we departed Abram asked if I could help find out from which Native American tribe she had descended. One of her ancestors had been kidnapped by an Indian tribe, then married a Native woman and raised several children with her. He adopted many Native ways before returning with them to the Amish.

In my spirit God reminded me that many Indian prophets have been saying, "When God about the intensity of love our God requires of us? Sadly, during our trip east we also spent a considerable amount of time among Hellenized Christians enmeshed John 7:38,39a: "'Whoever trusts in Nicolaitanism. Our hearts hurt for them and their blindness to God's desire for a love relationship with them evidenced by life transformation through His Spirit.

We noticed that most conversations of a spiritual nature centered on the "horizontal" — that is, their religious activity. Not one testimony attested to the loving faithfulness of our Father.

We longed for the "vertical" dimension — that which both glorifies our Father and pleases Him.

"The Vertical"

The vertical dimension of "Love the Lord your God with your lives represents the facets that comprise your relationship with our heavenly Father and His Son, Jesus. Each particular part of the vertical enhances the quality of your love relationship with our Lord.

"The Horizontal"

The horizontal dimension to your faith pilgrimage encompasses your faith practices and relationships here on earth. And that's good! There's nothing wrong with horizontal enactment! Even though we are "born from above", we do live in a physical realm, and to love our fellow man as we love ourselves is a biblical mandate. (Continued on page 4)

Facets of the T rue Vertical in Your Life

Goal: Increased loving-trust in God our Father, and walking in the freedom offered to you through Jesus our Messiah

Love for and trust in our Father (see Proverbs 3:5,6; Mark 12:30) are the heart issues that bring you continuing spiritual growth. Out of this growth, our Father and His Son Jesus receive glory from your life. At the same time, you grow in increasing Christ-likeness.

Worship and Praise (see John 4:24) are exuberant expressions that reveal your true heart toward our Lord. Through worship and praise your spirit is able to convey its most joyful expression of recognition of our Father God. Your expression isn't a form or style of worship or praise that pleases God, but emanation from a forgiven, repentant heart.

True, sacrificial love for others (see Matthew 25:31-46) can emanate only out of the quality of loving trust you maintain in the vertical. Your ability to genuinely care for those who can never repay your kindness can only be accomplished through the love and power the Holy Spirit provides. All other kinds of love fall short of the humble sacrifice that stirs the recipient to give praise to our Father. This is what truly sets followers of Jesus apart as we live out our lives in the horizontal. The inner motivation of your heart is to glorify our Father. This distinguishes your activity in the horizontal from all other motives of mankind.

Mutual encouragement (see Hebrews 3:13; 10:23, 24) by those who follow Jesus with all their heart and soul helps you avoid the traps of sin's deceit. Satan seeks to trap you in self-pity and despair, and entice you to entertain "pet sins" of which you refuse to repent. He tries to convince you that our Father isn't hearing you, or has even rejected you. Your self-consumed, self-pitying attitude sends the message to our Lord that He is untrustworthy. True fellowship counters deception with testimonies of answered prayer and our Father's faithfulness. Biblical encouragement can recount God's past and present acts of kindness toward you as His beloved child.

Fellowship with the righteous (see 1 John 1:3; 2 Corinthians 6:14) is critical to your faith expression. We have written how critical interconnected fellowship in homes was to the earliest Church. The primary purpose of their gatherings was to uphold communal righteousness by repentance, prayer, instruction in godliness, breaking of bread, and one-anothering in order for the Father to answer their prayers (see James 5:16-19;1 Peter 3:12, Acts 2:42). The righteous walk in obedience-based trust. They seek God's guidance and His commands, following them without rationalizing the consequences to their obedience. Love for God and a desire to walk in the righteousness of Jesus boldly compels you to know and to do His will (Proverbs 28:1).

Your sufferings (see Romans 5:3-5; 8:14-17; Hebrews 5:8; 1 Peter 2:20,21) are character transformers, not trials to avoid at all cost. You yearn to give the Potter freedom to change within you all that He desires, and to form in you whatever will suit His purposes. It isn't that God changes anything around you; He changes you. Your identification with Jesus in His sufferings increases profoundly even as your peace and joy in Him increase (see Romans 12:2; Philippians 2:1-16).

Having your needs met God's way (see Genesis 1:26,30; 2:8,9;15-25) is the only way you can really experience the freedom offered through Jesus. Your need for dignity, authority, blessing and provision, security, purpose and meaning, freedom and boundary, and intimate love and companionship can only be experienced when your generational strongholds are demolished. As these needs are met, you experience a greater fullness in your relationship with both our Father and His Son Jesus, and with other people.

Removal of generational strongholds (see Ephesians 6:12; 2 Corinthians 10:3-6) frees your soul, that is, your mind, will, and emotions, for the Holy Spirit to change you into conformity to Jesus. Even many who have embraced the true Gospel still find themselves struggling with bondage to strongholds passed along from generation to generation. The transformation promised to them as part of their sanctification is impossible until these influences are demolished. Demolish the strongholds that impede your soul's transformation into Christ-likeness! Then you can reflect the character of our Lord Jesus to Him.

Repentance that produces righteousness (see 1 John 1:9) is key to your ongoing relationship with both our Father and His Son Jesus. You can have no true fellowship in Jesus with others in the horizontal if this vertical fellowship is obstructed through abiding in tolerated sin (see I John 2:7-10). Repentance is your first step in embracing the true Gospel, and it is the glue that maintains your fellowship until you are welcomed into heaven.

Embracing the true Gospel (see John 7:38,39), the one Jesus speaks of, is the first step of living in the vertical. As you embrace the conditions of the Covenant offered by our Father, He seals you with the Holy Spirit guaranteeing His part of the Covenant promises. The salvation offered in the true Gospel is not a point in time, but the culmination of a pilgrimage (see Galatians 5:19-21; 6:7-9; Philippians 2:12,13) which ends when our Lord proclaims your name in front of the hosts of heaven (see Revelation 3:5).

The Horizontal-only in Your Life, Living a False Vertical

HORIZONTAL-ONLY: your physical world activities and relationships; People and Activity are pre-eminent

Not embracing the true Gospel (see Galatians 1:8) leaves you unsaved and unchanged. You may embrace a variety of religious activities, but you live unempowered by the Holy Spirit. Your knowledge increases, but your motivations are still worldly (see 2 Timothy 3:1-7). You remain susceptible to the spirits of lawlessness and anti-Christ that control so much of Nicolaitanism (see 1 John 4:1-3). The Anti-Christ spirit doesn't mind pointing the way to Jesus, but it never permits you to enter into the Covenant our Father offers. You live religiously, but not in relationship with our Lord. Your so-called "faith" rests on your religious knowledge and activities, not on Jesus (Habakkuk 2:4). You are still beset by the same sins you have always dealt with (see 1 John 3:6). Your prayers go unanswered, bringing no glory to our Father (see Psalm 34:13-17; 1 Peter 3:12).

Strongholds are not demolished (see 2 Timothy 2:25b,26), compelling you to seek out companions with familiar spirits. Unclean spirits within influence people to marry and/or attend faith communities controlled by the same generational strongholds. By not having your God-given needs met, you are vulnerable to adopting the world's ways. The Church Growth Movement and mega-church thrust succeed from a worldly framework because they attract people who have never found freedom in Jesus and still live under the influence of demonic forces. Surveys determine what appeals to worldly people, and religious programs become marketing schemes to attract both the lukewarm and unbelievers. Worldly strategies are lawless at their core, lacking the power to convict people of their sin. They enable countless numbers to call themselves "Christian" while embracing all of the motivations that align them with the world. As self-labeled "Christians" they live as enemies of God (see Philippians 3:18-20; 1 John 2:15,16).

Your interpersonal relationships lack the loving intimacy that only the Holy Spirit can give (see Galatians 5:22,23). Because of tolerated sin and undemolished strongholds you have tension in your marriage, your home, and other vital relationships You can be around people, but never feel like you belong. Bitterness, temporal values, and/or moral impurity are habitual pet sins of which you refuse to repent (see Hebrews 12:15; 1 John 2:15,16; 1 Corinthians 6:9,10). These sinful attitudes and pursuits are key indicators that you have not embraced the true Gospel. Thus, without the indwelling Spirit of Jesus, you are still destined for hell (Romans 8:8; John 3:18-21).

You fellowship with unrighteousness (see Jude 3-4,18-19), with little concern for the importance of righteousness in your own family or those you fellowship with. You refrain from the kind of accountability that would expose your sinful ways. You seek out Hellenist communities that are bastions of presumption and lawlessness. You believe that "grace" gives you freedom to keep on sinning (see 1 Peter 2:16). It's more convenient for you to have others teach you the Bible than for you to know and apply it yourself. You may be proud of your Bible knowledge, but your life is devoid of testimony to Jesus (1 Corinthians 8:1).

Hiding Out in the Horizontal

Horizontal-only religious relationships can't spur others on to grow in the vertical. Bible studies that focus on knowledge acquisition rather than life application of the Word fall into this category. Many Christians live from And, as Scripture admonishes, many who listen to Bible teaching fail to put it into practice: "You will be ever hearing, but never doing." Their minds may be gratified but their lives reflect no change. Hellenist Bible teachers offer no access to their personal lives. Therefore they can't role model a way of life that pleases God.
