Dear Friends,

As Sue read an article from Global Chinese Ministries to me last night, I knew that the Holy Spirit was showing me the future of institutionalized Christianity in the United States. If you've been using our material over the years, you may recall some of the various revelations our Lord has given to us over the years concerning the Hebraic Restoration:

“These truths will not bear fruit until the ‘Dark Days of Chastisement’ come upon the United States... The children of today will not become grandparents before I chastise the United States... When a woman becomes President, it will be a sign that all this is about to happen... When the chastisement is over, 50 million people will be dead... At this time, continue to share the Hebraic foundations. When these things take place, more hearts will be responsive.”

Our ministry is threefold:
1. To share the Hebraic foundations.

2. To lead in a manner that keeps institutionalism out. Our Lord made clear we were to never let this ministry develop so that we have a staff to manage; there's just the two of us.

3. To contend for Jesus in the midst of so many who call themselves “Christian” but serve anti-Christ purposes.

In a way it's a very lonely ministry, though thousands of people are downloading from our website that which our Father has given us to share. But we rejoice together in our isolation because our sufficiency in the Jesus we love has grown in ways that never could have happened when we were busy warm bodies serving in the Nicolaitan religious system for 16 long years.

I'd like to share what the Holy Spirit pointed out to me from the article I mentioned. The writer cited that this year was the 40th anniversary of the Chinese Cultural Revolution. When we worked with international students while we were at the retreat center many years ago, we met a number of Chinese students who survived this painful and tumultuous ten-year period. Countless millions were deported to labor camps and remote rural areas. One of Sue's students in her English class spent years toiling in a mine in the north of China in unimaginably harsh conditions.

Chinese Christians remember that all places of worship were closed and transformed into government-purpose buildings. Bibles were burned, and in many places even meeting together as two or three for quiet prayer could be life-threatening.

As severe as it was for Chinese Christians at the time, many now see these events from a different perspective. They recognize how the Cultural Revolution completely dismantled institutional Christianity in their country. This led to the quiet proliferation of house churches among people fully responsive to the Holy Spirit — and like the early followers of Jesus, they counted their lives of worth only in terms of loving and serving Him and His purposes. Out of these dark times the Chinese church has become by many estimates the largest Christian community in the world.

“You will rebuild the ancient ruins and will raise up the age-old foundations; you will be called Repairer of Broken Walls, Restorer of Streets with Dwellings” (Isaiah 58:12).

Some of our Hebraic materials are now being used in house churches in China. We’ve been asked to go there to share on numerous occasions, as well as many other places around the globe. But our Father will not release us to do that. Instead, we hear in our spirit, “Continue to make these truths available for free from your website. When they discuss these together, the presence of My Son will enable them to put them into practice.”

Our Father continues to show us how the truths of Jeremiah apply to Christendom today, especially for followers of Jesus in the United States. We’ll write more about this in the future. But if you’re in doubt that God is about to chastise this nation, all we can do is ask you to look around you with the Spirit’s eyes of righteousness.

Your Bible knowledge alone should show you that our holy God acts when a nation, and especially when people who claim to be His, act so wickedly.

- Clergy leading this nation in divorce.
- Christian marriages surpassing unbelieving couples in divorce.
- Believers and nonbelievers holding and practicing the same ungodly, worldly moral convictions.

Ask yourself: How long will God let this go on?

If your heart is zealous in Christ to walk in truth no matter what the cost, Isaiah 58:12 is God's word for you. NOW is the time for you to prepare yourself and your family to rebuild the love-grounded obedient trust of our forefathers who first trusted Jesus. Expedite what God wants you to learn and apply to your lives as you grow ever more dependent on Him.

Don't squander this opportunity. When a woman becomes President, exercising rule over the people as Isaiah warned about (3:12), you'll find there won't be much time before the darkness rules this land.

Yes, your preparation will likely be lonely. If you and your spouse go on together, praise God! Few today are hungering for the depth of relationship our Father and His Son Jesus are calling for in His true followers. Religious people don't need God right now. There's too much else to trust in besides Him...

But the dark days are coming when repentance and righteousness will not only be the hallmark of true followers, but will provide the light we need to shine in darkness. We will suffer and many of us will die, just as Jesus warned His earliest followers: "They will put you out of the [religious establish- ment]; in fact, a time is coming when anyone who kills you will think he is offering a service to God"(John 16:2; see also Matthew 24). Get yourself and family ready now to die on a moment's notice steadfastly looking unto Jesus...

That which many will misunderstand as an evil attack of Christianity in the United States will, in fact, be our Father's destruction of a system that serves itself. Nothing will be rebuilt out of it. The system that has become an idol to so many must be shaken and removed by Him so that living rooms filled with people who love Jesus as Lord of their lives and walk righteously in Him as light in the darkness can once again be established. This will happen, and many of you will live to see these days!

Please, prepare your heart —NOW! Two people preparing to be light in the coming darkness,

Mike & Sue Dowgiewicz
