Section 3: Segment 3

Topic 2. Seniors, Are You Christ-like Or A Judas?

Christ-likeness

___ I've spent years prayerfully applying the Bible to my life, and now younger people are turning to me for wisdom.

___ I am more involved than I've ever been in the lives of other people, especially guiding the next generation to follow Jesus wholeheartedly.

___ I realize the Biblical fruit of my generation is discerned by how our grandchildren turn out. I'm relationally close to my children, and I enjoy helping my grandchildren establish strong Biblical convictions.

___ I'd describe my relationship with Jesus as "filled with fervent love."

Judas Identity

___ Most of my focus has been on achieving a comfortable retirement. I have little by way of Biblical counsel to give the younger generation.

___ My life consists of as few responsibilities as possible. I planned on a pleasurable, leisurely retirement, and I don't want to feel pressured by the needs of others.

___ I raised my children, and now the most responsibility toward my grandchildren that I want is to be "Grandpa (or Grandma) Santa Claus."

___ I'd describe my relationship with Jesus as "without passion."

- On which list did you find yourself more often, Jesus or Judas? How do you feel about yourself, based on what you checked?

- If you had marks on the Judas side, what do you think Jesus would have you do about it?

- If you're a senior, what are you doing, or what do you need to change, to be available to help the younger generations?

- List the names of your closest companions in the faith. Onto which list do THEY fall?
