Section 3: Segment 16

Topic 3. Beware of the Mavericks!

Maverick women sow seeds of discord and doubt in other women’s lives. They agitate their contentment and stir up dissension against those women’s husbands.

- What is it about us women that so stirs us to argue and make our homes a bastion of discord? Does this describe yourself or your home?

- Who among your female relationships may be a maverick? Describe what you’ve observed about her willingness or resistance to follow the input or lead of males, whether her husband, her boss, or spiritual leadership.

- Have you ever been (or are you now) in a position in which you need to warn a “maverick” twice about her divisiveness and then cut off the relationship if there is no change? How did you feel about the confrontation?
